

CSR in Alice Springs

Give your delegates a gift to carry home in their hearts, not just their luggage

As business custodians of Australia's vast heartland, Alice Springs Convention Centre is committed to facilitating a richer delegate experience...one worthy of our unique destination.

Corporate Social Responsibility or CSR is the perfect way to connect delegates with destination.

Alice Springs Convention Centre (ASPCC) believes passionately in the value of CSR and the opportunity it affords the business events sector to develop a lasting and authentic legacy.

In Alice Springs, CSR is a commitment to the economic, environmental and social sustainability of our community. ASPCC's diverse CSR partnership opportunities are flexible to your schedule or budget.

Choose from financial and 'in kind' donation programs or exhilarating hands-on volunteer projects.

93 Barrett Drive, Alice Springs, NT 0870

p 08 8950 0200 | f 08 8950 0300 | info@aspc.com.au | www.aspc.com.au

Central Australian CSR Partnerships

Bindi Centre

Supported by Lifestyle Solutions, Alice Springs' Bindi Centre provides flexible and responsive support services to people with disabilities via their acclaimed art, craft and social enterprise schemes.

Purchase hand-painted delegate badges by renowned Bindi artist Conway Ginger or get your team down and dirty with a Bindi Beautification landscaping or light manufacturing project.

www.lifestylesolutions.org.au/NorthernTerritory or www.bindiart.com

Drum Atweme

Tangentyere Council's Drum Atweme (pronounced drum at_um) project engages at-risk young people from town camps in Alice Springs, using music and percussion as a medium to alleviate boredom and empower self confidence.

A Drum Atweme welcome performance is a vibrant, hilarious and incredibly poignant experience - guaranteeing your delegates an instant and authentic connection with country and culture.

www.tangentyere.org.au/services/family_youth/drum_atweme

Western Desert Nganampa Walytja Palyantjaku Tjutaku Aboriginal Corporation (Purple House)

Western Desert Nganampa Walytja Palyantjaku Tjutaku Aboriginal Corporation (AKA Purple House) provides dedicated life-saving dialysis, return to country, governance and vital social support for aboriginal families suffering from the impact of kidney disease.

Purple House's innovative bush medicine project produces retail quantities of beautifully packaged bush balms - The perfect delegate gift, supporting a crucial Central Australian health care project.

www.wdnwpt.org.au

